

Historical Villains

To some people, Oliver Cromwell furthered the great cause of democracy, for others he was a coloniser and tyrant. Some people consider Genghis Khan a mighty hero but for most he was a menace! Who is a villain; who decides? And which historical villain will you become for trick or treating this year?

Check out our Rogues Gallery for some inspiration on which villain you're going to bring to life!

Rogues Gallery

"Bloody Mary"
Mary I

"Vlad The Impaler"
Vlad III

Medusa

Maximilien Robespierre

Genghis Khan

Emperor Nero

Dick Turpin

Cleopatra

Oliver Cromwell

Join our baddy's accessory making workshop at New Brewery Arts on Mon 28th Oct, 10 -12:30pm & 1:30-4pm.

Then dress up as your favourite baddy for Halloween and share your outfits with the hashtag #cirenhistoryfest or by emailing hello@cirencesterhistoryfestival.org, telling us why you think your character is a villain. The best three will win a family ticket to The Three Musketeers at The Barn Theatre!